

Self-Development of People

www.pcusa.org/sdop

The Self-Development of People is a ministry that affirms God's concern for humankind. We are Presbyterians and ecumenical partners, dissatisfied with poverty and oppression, united in faith and action through sharing, confronting and enabling. We participate in the empowerment of economically poor, oppressed and disadvantaged people who are seeking to change the structures that perpetuate poverty, oppression and injustice.

SDOP Descriptions of International Water Projects

SI00001 Groupement Mixte de Zamdigo, BURKINA FASO

Through a borehole drilling process, this community will have clean water closer to the village for their families use and also to facilitate the development of vegetable gardens to generate incomes and improve their quality of life.

SI00020 Aduogo Women Group, KENYA

Women of the Aduogo community have organized a water development project to provide a source of clean water for the entire community, which will improve the health of the group and their families.

SI00075 Shine Co-operative Farmer's Society Ltd., GHANA

This water project will drill two wells and develop an irrigation system for farms, provide water for livestock and expand piggery by building 12 pens. With expansion of the piggery, the operation will be upgraded to modern standards and become competitive.

SI00146 Kopany Women Development Group, KENYA

This project consisting of 32 women coming together to this poultry project founded by the women of Rubaga began improve water conditions by drilling boreholes and installing pumps to pipe water into storage tanks which will provide adequate and clean water.

SI00153 Osiepe Women Group, KENYA

The women of Osiepe have developed a poultry and dairy project to increase in need of an improved water supply; this community has organized to build a water storage tank. By securing donations of land, sand, bricks, skilled and unskilled labor, and money.

SI02110 Community San Luis Aguacayo, EL SALVADOR

Community drinking water.

SI02221 Good Hope Brothers Almatu Mankon, CAMEROON

Having a central area for the daily feeding, watering, and sanitation of pigs is very important to his community as they seek to increase production, and eliminate hunger and poverty.

SI02250 Hermanamiento San Luis Mo. Rio Abajo, NICARAGUA

Water is critical to life. But, clean water is even more important. With this project, individual families will be able to have clean, running water in their homes, grow vegetable gardens, raise poultry and do other activities, which will promote improved

SI98003 Koiro Women Group, KENYA

This clean water, dairy, and poultry farm will supply clean water via bore holes and provide needed food items to its members and community to uplift their standard of living.

SI98151 Wuwan Village, CHINA

This irrigation and water conservancy project will enable the village to receive a dependable supply of water for crops, thereby increasing production and adequate food supplies for their families.